A detailed topographic map of the French Alps region. The map shows a network of roads, with major routes highlighted in red and secondary roads in yellow. Numerous cities and towns are labeled, including Grenoble, Chambéry, Annecy, and Valence. The map also depicts mountain ranges and peaks, with Mt. Blanc (4807m) being a prominent feature. The terrain is shown with green shading for lower elevations and brown/tan shading for higher, mountainous areas. A scale bar in the bottom left corner indicates distances in kilometers (0, 20, 40 km).
